CONFERENCE OF SILVER MEN.

Indications That To-Day's Gathering Will Be a Failure.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION AS TO ACTION.

Senators Daniel, Harris and Jones Expected to Be Present—Conservative Men Opposed to Any Extreme Course Being Adopted.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 10.—Special. The gathering of silver men for the conference of Democratic silver leaders is so small to-night that there seems little promise of an important meeting to-morrow. From all indications, the conference will prove a fizzle, and its action will be as absurd, when the character of the assembly is considered, as the silver movement itself. There seems absolutely no possibility that the meeting will be a representative one in any sense of the word.

A few well-known silver men will meet together, and as usual talk about what the people want, and with the exception of about half a dozen, making exceptions, no one will be present more than his individual opinion.

Senators Daniel, Jones, and Harris, will be present, as will also representatives of the silver movement. The conference will be held at the Hotel Hamilton, and will be held at the Hotel Hamilton.

There seems to be a wide divergence of opinion among the men who are here, and it is likely that the conference will be a failure.

THE CUBAN REBELLION.

WHAT IS SAID TO BE A PLAIN STATEMENT OF THE FACTS IN THE CASE.

No Serious Fighting Since February—Spain at First Regarded the Troubles with Disdain.

HAVANA, Aug. 10.—To those to whom the Cuban rebellion against the Spanish Government is of any interest, and who, wishing to know the truth, trust entirely to the official news, or, on the other hand, give credit to stories of filibuster expeditions, and who are mistaken on account of verbal transmission, the conflicting nature of the news brings only uncertainty.

The difference exists that, while the rebels communicate exclusively through verbal messages, acting as an army on foreign territory, the Spanish Government, in possession of the wires, the post, and the railroad lines, ruling with a powerful hand in the quiet cities of the island, exercising on the newspapers a powerful hand in the quiet cities of the island, exercising on the newspapers a powerful hand in the quiet cities of the island.

Views of the Leaders.

In this connection the views of the leaders are interesting. Judge Cox, who declares that he is as good as a martyr, and who is a strong supporter of the silver movement, declares that only a silver man will be able to lead the movement.
